Mr. Ashok Kumar,
Membership No: F/E/04357
Ex Director,
IIISLA.

Dt: 03-02-2024

NAMASKAR!

It is evident and proven beyond any doubt as per your mails to the Central Council IIISLA, and also shared in social media groups, that you were having the copy of Draft RRC based on which you gave inputs on the subject. The Directors kept on asking you via emails and calls to share the copy of draft, but you did not. You misused the honorary post of CEO also by not sharing the draft within the BOD. Your collusion with Mr. Lalit Gupta the then president is proved, and you both kept the BOD and members of IIISLA in dark in a secretive and suspicious manner. Even none of you furnished the copy to Admin Office for record purposes. In social media you're bickering in the shape of clarification using the designation as Director, IIISLA is being viewed very seriously by the Board.

Further you may note that on 6th December, 2023 in the BOD meeting you were removed from the Post of CEO and all Committees due to various procedural lapses committed while implementing IT Project and under the cover of CEO/ IT Committee Head in a unilateral manner and caused a loss of INR 18 Lacs (approximately) in the shape of Bank Guarantee charges plus other expenses incurred by IIISLA the fate of which is yet to be decided by the Board. Your act of blackmail of Office Bearer and Directors of IIISLA caused disruption in discharging their duties and not participating in IIISLA functioning by challenging them by way of issuing legal notices and threats of police complaints as a director of the company is also to be viewed and weighed by the board.

In spite of your resignation accepted, you handled membership applications. You represented yourself as Director, IIISLA in HC, Delhi and that too you appeared in HC, Delhi against your parent organization IIISLA. You may note, understand and digest completely that once the resignation of a Director is accepted by the Board, he or she in no way can act as a Director irrespective of the fact that his or her appeal/submission is disposed off or not. You may note that you had been and still trying to be on a wrong path by claiming to be a Director of IIISLA which you must desist and your acts and deeds in social media are misleading the members of IIISLA. Therefore you are hereby cautioned and advised to completely withdraw your statements in all spheres by the end of the day (03-02-2024), wherever you have misrepresented or misquoted failing which the Board of Directors shall have to initiate an action against you as per the law.

Best regards,

President,
IIISLA.
